Decision details

Who does this decision relate to?

Ms Simpson whose last known address was in Essex.

A person who is or was involved in a legal practice but is not a solicitor.

Summary of decision

The SRA has put restrictions on where and how Ms Simpson can work in an SRA regulated firm. It was found that:

Ms Simpson, who is not a solicitor, was involved in a legal practice and has occasioned or been a party to an act or default which involved such conduct on her part that it is undesirable for her to be involved in a legal practice in any of the ways described in the order below.

The facts of the case

Ms Simpson was employed as a personal assistant by Walker Morris LLP.

Ms Simpson misled the firm by stating that she has allocated £250 of a colleague's wedding collection to her honeymoon fund via weddingshop.com, when she had retained the money in her own bank account.

Decision on outcome

An order pursuant to section 43(2) of the Solicitors Act 1974 was imposed as Ms Simpson's conduct meant that it was undesirable for her to be involved in a legal practice without the SRA's prior approval. The order pursuant to section 43 was made with effect from the date of the letter or email notifying Ms Simpson of this decision:

Ms Simpson's conduct was serious because it was dishonest.

Ms Simpson was also ordered to pay a proportion of the SRA's costs of £600.
