

Diversity in the profession

10 January 2024

We monitor the diversity of those we regulate and collect diversity data from law firms every two years.

The latest law firm diversity data was collected in 2023 and covers solicitors and others working in SRA-regulated firms. Read an overview of our key findings, which highlight the changes we have seen over recent years.

Firm diversity data tool

This data is available to view using our firm diversity data tool. This is an interactive and easy way to view information about each diversity characteristic by firm size, work type, number of branches and location.

Use our firm diversity data tool

More about the tool

In-house solicitors diversity data

We ask all solicitors to provide their diversity information after they are admitted and to regularly check and update this. They are responsible for this information, even if their employer manages other elements of their account.

Find out the latest information