Reasons/basis

This notification relates to a Decision to prosecute before the Solicitors Disciplinary Tribunal. This is an independent Tribunal which will reach its own decision after considering all the evidence, including any evidence put forward by the Solicitor. The Tribunal has certified that there is a case to answer in respect of allegation which is or includes that, while a solicitor, Partner and Head of the Family Law team at Berrymans Lace Mawer LLP, he:

- Between December 2019 and April 2021, misled his client, into believing that he had lodged an application for a Decree Nisi on her behalf in October or November 2019, when he knew or ought to have known, that was not true.

The allegation is subject to a Hearing before the Solicitors Disciplinary Tribunal and are as yet unproven.
