Reasons/basis

This notification relates to a Decision to prosecute before the Solicitors Disciplinary Tribunal. This is an independent Tribunal which will reach its own decision after considering all the evidence, including any evidence put forward by the Solicitor. The Tribunal has certified that there is a case to answer in respect of allegations which are or include that :-

On or around 25 September 2023, Mr Williams amended the electronic copy of an internal handover note dated 19 December 2022 relating to the Estate of Client A , by deleting the prompt to carry out Capital Gains Tax mitigation with the intention and/or effect of misleading others into believing that no prompt had been included in the original internal handover note.

On 27 September 2023, sent an email which was misleading by failing to set out fully and/or accurately the circumstances that gave rise to a Capital Gains Tax liability to the estate of Client A.

The allegations are subject to a Hearing before the Solicitors Disciplinary Tribunal and are as yet unproven.
