How to pay

For each solicitor wanting a practising certificate or registered European or foreign lawyer seeking to register, you will need to pay an annual fee [\[https://news.sra.org.uk/mysra/fees/1\]](https://news.sra.org.uk/mysra/fees/1).

The fee summary page at the end of your application will show you how your total fees are broken down. This includes information about how the practising certificate and registration fees are broken down by administration fee, regulatory fee and Compensation Fund contributions.

In most cases we will approve the practising certificate or registration applications immediately and you will pay all the fees in one go. If we need to further assess an individual application, you will only pay that individual's administration fee for now. If we then approve the application, we will notify you separately that the regulatory fee and Compensation Fund contribution are due.

We accept all major debit and credit cards, or you can pay by BACS transfer.

Calculate periodic fee

Every law firms and authorised body must also pay an annual periodic fee. Find out how fees are calculated [\[https://news.sra.org.uk/mysra/updates/bulk-renewal/1\]](https://news.sra.org.uk/mysra/updates/bulk-renewal/1).

How long will the application take to be processed

We aim to process 95% of applications within 30 days.

We will email you when your practising certificates and registrations have been granted and the organisation application has been processed. You will then be able to download your certificates from mySRA. We do not issue hard copy certificates.
